Commercial Alliance Life Insurance Company OF NEW YORK.

The Commercial Alliance Life Insurance Company, of New York, offers the best form of insurance extant. Its policy contract is plain and simple, containing no vexatious conditions. It promises so much unrestricted, indisputable insurance in exchange for definite, level premiums, usually little more than half those of the continued payment whole life insur-ance. $100,000 is deposited with the In-surance Department of the State of New York for the security of policy-holders, in addition to that afforded by the full reserve required by the statutes, and also by the surplus accumulation. Its financial strength is beyond question, the last annual report showing that it had cash assets of $830 to each $100 of liability. The Board of Directors is composed of experienced business men and capitalists, who personally control the affairs of the Company, thus proving the strongest possible guarantee of honest, economic and skillful management. This Company has written, through local representatives in North Carolina, during the past five months, nearly a quarter of a minimal of business; and active, energetic and reliable agents are wanted to further extend the Company's interests in all sections of the Company's interests in all sections of the State. Ample and exclusive territory assigned each agent. Only those furnish-ing unquestionable references as to char-acter and ability, need apply. Address all communications to

DISSOLUTION OF CO-PARTNERSHIP.

I hereby announce that I have this day sold my interest in the business of the late firm of Hardin & Pescud, to Messrs. Thomas Pescud and T. L. Eberhardt, who will continue the business under the name and style of Eberhardt & Pescud. All claims against Hardin & Pescud will be paid by Eberhardt & Pescud, who will also collect all accounts due said former firm. In taking leave of my old friends and cuscomers, I beg to express to them my grateful appreciation of the steady and generous support they have given me for the past thirteen years. I trust they will be equally kind to my successors, whom I cordially recommend to all my friends as eminently worthy of confidence and support. September 1, 1890. E J. HARDIN.

Referring to the above notice, we respectfully announce that we have this day formed a copartnership for the transaction of a general grocery and provision business as the successors of Messers. Hardin & Pescud. With increased facilities for doing businesss, and an experience (as to one of the partners) of twelve years in this branch of trade, we hope to merit a continuance of the generous patronage extended to the late firm; and to increase it, if an increased stock, low prices and close attention to the wants of our customers will accomplish that result.
